

HIERARCHY OF U.S. LAW

United States Constitution

prevails over

Treaties and Federal Statutes (in a conflict between these two, the last in time prevails)

prevail over

Executive Agreements

prevail over

State Law